

POOR HELPING WELFARE SOCIETY (NGO)

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR INTERNS & VOLUNTEERS

Effective: June 2026 | Applicable to all roles

1 PURPOSE

Poor Helping Welfare Society (NGO) works with vulnerable communities. This Code of Conduct ensures we maintain dignity, safety, and trust in all our work. Every intern/volunteer must follow these standards.

2 CORE VALUES

You represent Poor Helping Welfare Society (NGO) at all times during your internship:

Respect

Integrity

Accountability

Compassion

Transparency

3 PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

1. Punctuality: Report on time for office work, field visits, and online meetings. Inform your supervisor at least 2 hours in advance for any leave.

2. Communication: Be polite with beneficiaries, donors, team members, and the public. No abusive language, shouting, or arguments.

3. Dress Code: During field work wear NGO ID card + decent clothes. Avoid shorts, sleeveless, or offensive graphics.

4. Attendance: Minimum 80% attendance required for certificate.

4 WORK ETHICS

1. Honesty: No fake reporting of work, field visits, or data. Plagiarism in content/reports will lead to termination.

2. Confidentiality: Do not share photos, videos, names, addresses, or stories of beneficiaries on personal social media without written approval. Donor data is strictly confidential.

3. NGO Assets: Use laptop, camera, or any equipment only for NGO work. Return all items before last day.

4. Social Media: When posting about PHWS, use respectful language. Do not post political/religious views from NGO accounts. Take approval before posting field photos.

5 FIELD WORK & BENEFICIARY INTERACTION

1. Consent: Always take verbal consent before clicking photos/videos of beneficiaries. For children, take parent/guardian consent.

2. No Discrimination: Treat everyone equally regardless of caste, religion, gender, or economic status.

3. Safety: No intern will visit high-risk areas alone. Follow safety instructions given by Field Coordinator.

4. No Personal Favors: Do not take/give money, gifts, or personal contact numbers to beneficiaries.

6 PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

1. Alcohol, smoking, or drugs during NGO hours/field work

2. Sexual harassment or inappropriate behavior with team/beneficiaries

3. Fraud, theft, or misuse of donation money/resources

4. Sharing internal documents, donor lists, or strategies with outside parties

5. Political campaigning or religious preaching during NGO work

7 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

1. Do not work with other NGOs on similar projects during your internship without approval.

2. Inform To Secretary - Mehak if any relative is a beneficiary or vendor of Poor Helping Welfare Society NGO

8 DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Violation of this Code will result in:

- Step 1: Verbal warning
- Step 2: Written warning
- Step 3: Termination of internship without/certificate and charged termination Fee

Serious violations under Section 6 = Immediate termination.
